SUMMARY

I am versed in varied aspects of running as well as planning and launching a business. With my skill sets and strength in effectively networking both professionally as well in the community, I hope to match myself with a business that desires my abilities within its community.

EXPERIENCE

Nomadic Trading Company: Sales, Warehouse Manager

Durham, NC 2012 - 2019

Originally starting as a general labor hand my duties were simply to lift and carry. Within a few short months I took on product photography, sales floor, online sales, quickbooks, emails, and ultimately becoming the warehouse manager. I worked with everything from Adobe Photoshop, Quickbooks, Magenta, Instagram, forklifts, work trucks, 53ft containers, shipping and receiving, and lastly any warehouse and shop maintenance.

Nataraja Healing Arts, Manager

Durham NC— 2010 - 2012

As a founding member/manager of Nataraja Healing Arts , my job was to build and execute all the paper working in starting an LLC. Once established my duties focused on:

Management - designing and implementing all business procedures

Marketing - branding, flyers/coupons/business cards/Facebook --

Property management. -responsible for designing and executing a unique look for Nataraja Healing Arts.

I planned and completed renovations/upfitting

Accomplishments

Nataraja Healing Arts was designed to not only serve those that came to our business but also to take our trade out into the Durham community. By aligning ourselves with local business we set up accounts offering on-site massage or yoga to business' like: Fullsteam Brewery, Measurement Inc., McKinney, The Scrap Exchange. I took these account very personally by seeking out the business in person and cultivating a relationship that served both business. By the time Nataraja Healing Arts closed it's doors Durham and surrounding area readers voted it "Best of" by Independent Weekly Readers. *I personally declined the win to allow the runner up and surviving company to get the accolades.

Front Desk Manager, Funky Monkey Hair Salon

2007- 2011 Durham NC —

Reception duties including managing scheduling for all hair stylists.

Maintaining to the needs of clients both on the phone and in person. Retail ranging from management of presentation and ordering/ data base inventory. In charge of laundry for the daily use of co-workers as well as for the public. Overall responsible for keeping strict cleanliness and hygiene in according to all state and local codes.

Accomplishments

I was initially hired on to Funky Monkey Hair Salon when it was under different management and name, Redz Hair Studio. In the change over I was asked to stay on board and manage the position I was hired on for as front desk manager. As acting manager I got to help relaunch Funky Monkey both on-site and within Durham community.
